

The Stickler Weekly 36 ©David Stickley

ACROSS

- 1 Grade street as well as a road (8)
- 5 Pulled up just after leader went past (6)
- 10 Drug operation in university mismanaged initially (5)
- 11 Fellow acquiring an establishment that sells food and weed (9)
- 12 Passed around pasty not considered acceptable (10)
- 13 Structural support fixed to front of old building blocks (4)
- 15 Corrupt foundation backed borrower (6)
- 16 Misplace end of article about very good and brief inspection (4-3)
- 18 Blow up midsection of coral reef (7)
- 20 Set out a starting point for golfer's growth (6)
- 23 Transfer record of stakeholders' investments (4)
- 24 Rebel caught offender in IOC at the end (10)
- 26 Cold, rough sea is not for lightweight boat enthusiasts (9)
- 27 Client restructured without input from carbon and silicon chip manufacturer (5)
- 28 Leaves of azaleas in garden could be falling off? (6)
- 29 Very strong kid moved around, up and about (4-4)

DOWN

- 1 Rum, in short, is cheap and nasty (6)
- 2 A lightweight paper is under discussion (2,5)
- 3 Protest ignited by one against explosion (10)
- 4 Bad actor is upset about drive, say, provided for a vehicle's transmission (5,9)
- 6 Dog without lead jumped fence (4)
- 7 Snoops concealing minute detonators (7)
- 8 One living in English seaport is beaten up (4,4)
- 9 One form of antigen is brought around, say, for academics (14)
- 14 Mount crossing bridge is finishing close to royal supporter (10)
- 17 A telco's worked around hub's final difficulty (8)
- 19 Dogs injected with an organism's genetic variations (7)
- 21 Law-maker and punisher once stood up to king (7)
- 22 Tin-plated metal-ware is taken illegally? (6)
- 25 Cut layer containing tungsten (4)